
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
College of Business
Department of Accountancy

Daniel Patrick Doheny

Senior Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer
Reyes Holdings, LLC

“Financial Reporting & Management in a Privately-Held Company”

Thursday, March 17, 2005
114 David Kinley Hall
4:00 - 4:50 Presentation

Mr. Doheny is Senior Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer of Reyes Holdings, LLC, a privately held company based in Rosemont, Illinois. With revenues in excess of $7 billion per year, Reyes is the largest privately held company in Chicago and among the 20 largest privately held companies in the United States. Reyes Holdings specializes in food and beverage distribution and is among the world’s largest distributors to McDonald’s, Burger King, Subway and broadline foodservice customers through its Martin-Brower and Reinhart FoodService subsidiaries. Reyes serves more than 30,000 customers in 7 countries in North, Central and South America. Reyes is also the largest beer wholesaler in the United States distributing products for Miller, Coors, Corona, Heineken, Guinness and many other brands.

While at Reyes, Mr. Doheny has overseen all financial aspects of the business including acquisitions, financing, internal controls and reporting, capital investments and budgeting and has played a key role in strategy development, legal, information technology and human resources.

Prior joining Reyes in 2000, Mr. Doheny spent more than 16 years with KPMG LLP in Chicago, IL and Montvale, NJ; 6 years as an audit partner. While with KPMG, Mr. Doheny established, and was Partner in Charge of the Audit Committee Institute; as such he advised boards of directors around the world as to their roles and responsibilities in the board room, with particular emphasis on their finance and accounting responsibilities. In this capacity he worked closely with the National Association of Corporate Directors, Corporate Board Member magazine and the Conference Board. Mr. Doheny also served as Partner in charge of the transportation practice within KPMG’s Midwest Area. Mr. Doheny has been a speaker at numerous conferences and has been published in numerous magazines and journals.

Mr. Doheny graduated from the University of Illinois with a degree in accountancy in 1984 and passed the CPA exam in May 1984. In addition to his leadership roles with the many Reyes Holdings companies, he is also on the board of directors of the Special Olympics of Illinois. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Illinois Society of Public Accountants, the Chicago Economic Club, Financial Executives International and the University of Illinois President’s Council.