
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
College of Business
Department of Accountancy

J. Richard Stamm

National Partner-In-Charge of Tax
PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP

“Current and Future State of an Accounting Firm Tax Practice”

Thursday, November 4, 2004
141 Wohlers Hall
4:00 - 5:10 Presentation

J. Richard (Rick) Stamm is PricewaterhouseCoopers' U.S. Tax Leader. Mr. Stamm is also a member of the Firm's U.S. Management Committee and PricewaterhouseCoopers' Global Tax Executive Committee.

Mr. Stamm's background is broad-based, having served a wide range of companies from large inbound and outbound multinationals to large domestic companies, as well as family-owned businesses. His management roles have included leading the Philadelphia Tax office, leadership of the Consumer and Industrial Products industry practice, responsibility for the industry and geographic aspects of the U.S. Tax Practice, and most recently responsibility of all of the Tax National Practices, which include the industry and services practices.

Mr. Stamm joined the Firm in 1976 and was admitted to the partnership in 1986. He is a C.P.A. and earned his B.A. in Accounting, Summa Cum Laude, from Lycoming College in Pennsylvania (1976).