Bruce Piller is the Partner-in-Charge of the audit practice for the Chicago and Milwaukee offices of KPMG LLP. In this capacity, he is responsible for the overall operations and results of the audit practice, including financial performance and audit quality.

Bruce joined the Dallas office of KPMG in 1980 upon graduating from Harding University in Searcy, Arkansas with a BBA in Accounting. He was admitted into the partnership in 1991. He transferred to Chicago in 2002. During his career, Bruce has actively served many premiere clients of the firm, including PepsiCo, Ryder System, YUM! Brands, Hunt Oil Company, Armstrong Wood Products and others. Prior to assuming his current role, Bruce held several other leadership positions in the firm, including campus recruiting leader for the Southwest, leader of KPMG’s Southwest manufacturing, retailing and distribution practice, and partner-in-charge of the audit practice for Dallas/Fort Worth.

Bruce is actively involved in the Chicago community, serving on the Board of Directors of the Shedd Aquarium, Junior Achievement and March of Dimes. He is also a member of the Chicago Economic Club, Chicago Executive Club and National Association of Corporate Directors, as well as the AICPA and Illinois Society of CPAs.
