
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
College of Business
Department of Accountancy

Elaine Weiss

President and CEO
Illinois CPA Society

“The Accountancy Professional Circa 2006”

Thursday, October 26, 2006
141 Wohlers Hall
4:00 - 5:10 Presentation

Elaine Weiss is the President & CEO of the Illinois CPA Society, Illinois CPA Foundation and CPAs for the Public Interest.

Prior to assuming this position in June 2002, Ms. Weiss, an attorney, served as Associate Executive Director of the American Bar Association (ABA).

She has also held the position of Regional Director for the United States Department of Health and Human Services and staff attorney for the Special Commission on Administration of Justice in Cook County.

Accounting Today named Weiss as one of “The 2004 Top 100 Most Influential People in Accounting.”

Ms. Weiss holds a B.S. in journalism from Northwestern University’s Medill School of Journalism and received her J.D. from the National Law Center at George Washington University in Washington, D.C.